FORT ATKINSON, WI –

After 33 years working as Chief Lending Officer for Fort Community Credit Union (FCCU), James Simdon announced his retirement as of August 11, 2017. Jim’s career in the financial industry began at Fort Savings and Loan in Fort Atkinson. He managed their Jefferson Office for a number of years before coming to FCCU in 1984.

Simdon has been instrumental in the growth of FCCU over the years from a small building on Madison Avenue to the current location with 3 additional branches. Jim’s vast knowledge and wisdom has been integral to the growth and success of the credit union and he will be greatly missed by his team members.

Jim has been active within the community and credit union industry. He served on the Fort Atkinson City Council and is a member of the Fort Atkinson Rotary Club. He also has been a member of the Fort Atkinson High School Alumni Association Scholarship Committee providing numerous scholarships to area students.

“Jim’s understanding of the community, and his relationships with community members has greatly contributed to the growth of FCCU. When Jim started in 1984 we were 13 million in assets with 2 loan department employees, to now over $237 million in assets and 15 loan department employees. We wish him good health and good luck in his retirement.” Said Sue Johnson, President of FCCU.

About FCCU: Established in 1940, FCCU is a member-owned financial cooperative open to anyone living or working in Dane, Dodge, Jefferson, Rock, Walworth or Waukesha counties, any employee of this credit union and any member of the immediate family of any other eligible person. Fort Community holds $230 million in assets and has more than 19,000 members. For more information, visit www.fortcommunity.com or call (920)563-7305.
